

PUMP DRILLS

The O'odham, as well as other Native American peoples, used various simple, yet efficient tools such as the pump drill to make their work easier.

INSTRUCTIONS

Pump Drills are a part of our Historical Activities Box and can be borrowed upon request from the Visitor Center desk.

- Twist part “C” until the string is tightly wound.
- Holding part “C” with hands on either side, slowly push down while applying pressure.
- Ease off toward the bottom and let the drill come up on

Like a yo-yo - its all in the rhythm

Materials: Pump Drills and wood blocks (to drill on).
